

THE READING ZONE

STUDENT BOOK REVIEW

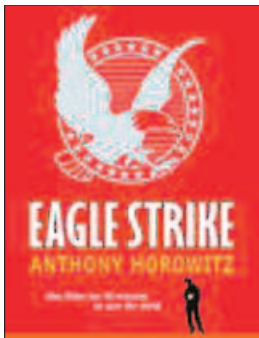

Eagle Strike

By Anthony Horowitz

Published by Philomel Books

My book review is on “Eagle Strike” by Anthony Horowitz. After two world saving adventures, teenage spy Alex Rider is having a wonderful time in Montpellier, France until Alex sees Yassen Gregorovich, who is a contract killer, coming off a yacht and heading into town. Later a mysterious explosion destroys where Alex is staying with his best friend Sabina and her parents. Seriously injuring her Dad, who is a journalist, makes Alex suspicious of Yassen being there. Later in the story, Alex discovers that the journalist was working on an article on multimillionaire Sir Damian Cray.

Once Alex reads the article he learns one thing: The world needs to be saved from Cray. This leads to a few murders and a high speed chase on a bike. Alex found out that Cray wants to save the world from drugs by using missiles. Can Alex save the world a fourth time or will Alex fall and die? There is much more to this wonderful story that you’ll have to find out for yourself. It’s a GREAT book!

Reviewed by ...

Matthew Gross

St. Joseph School,
Amherst

Teacher:

Kathy Loos

What is your favorite book?:

Artemis Fowl series.

What are your favorite type of books?:

Action and fiction.

What did you learn from this book?:

Don't trust anyone with your life.

BORDERS®

Promenade of Westlake, 892-7667

17200 Royalton Rd., Strongsville 846-1144

Borders Express, 324-5355

4333 Midway Blvd., Elyria

Newspapers In Education

225 East Ave., Elyria

www.chroniclet.com

Want to have your review featured?

E-mail:

bsuckow@chroniclet.com

or call 329-7183