

THE READING ZONE

STUDENT BOOK REVIEW

Hatchet

by: Gary Paulsen

Brian, a teenager of divorced parents, was in a plane crash. The morning after the crash, he got up and went searching for food. Around evening, he found berries, and shoveled them into his mouth. During the middle of the night, he woke up and threw up. He called them 'gut-berries'.

I enjoyed the part where Brian got his first kill. It was a bird and he called it his first meat. Brian had many experiences.

This book was good because it changed this fictional character's life forever.

Reviewed by...

Jacob Storrow

McCormick Middle School, Wellington

Grade: 5

Teacher, Martha Hecock

Who is your favorite author?

One of my favorite authors is Gary Paulsen, because he likes adventure stories, and that's what he writes.

Where do you like to read?

I like to read in my comfortable chair, in my living room.

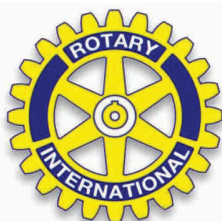

Who inspired you to read?

My mom always likes to read and sometimes reads to me.

Newspaper Internet & Education

Send us your book review:
www.chroniclet.com/nie.
Click on "Reading Zone."

Co-sponsor
The Elyria Rotary
www.elyriarotary.org